<h1>TRAVEL ADVISORY; Seeing South Africa: A Choice of Tours</h1>

Published: October 22, 1995

Two travel companies are offering tours to South Africa this winter that cut a wide swath through the large, multifaceted country.

Abercrombie & Kent's 10-day Highlights of South Africa tour begins with a day in Cape Town before moving on through the wine country to Constantia. Other highlights include two nights at the Ngala Game Reserve, with game drives in the early morning, afternoon and evening, a night in Johannesburg and a half day in Pretoria. A variety of extensions before and after the tour are available, including a four-day Garden Route pre-tour, which originates in the cathedral town of George and takes participants along the Indian Ocean coastline to Cape Town; a Zimbabwe-Botswana Extension that focuses on the Victoria Falls in Zimbabwe and the Chobe National Park in Botswana, and a "Blue Train Extension" on the railway of the same name.

Departures for Highlights tours are on Jan. 24 and Feb. 14 and later dates. The cost for double-occupancy accommodations, air fare from New York to Johannesburg, local transportation and some meals is $5,234 a person. Extensions are additional. Information: (800) 323-7308 or (708) 954-2944.

The Washington-based Blue Heart Travel Group is offering an 11-day Good Hope tour that begins with a visit to Pretoria and continues through Eastern Transvaal to Kruger National Park. After two nights at an air-conditioned "rest camp" there and a full day of game tracking, group members fly to Cape Town, where they will spend the rest of their nights, with day trips to the Cape Winelands and Cape Point.

Departures are Jan. 11 and 26. The $2,699 cost includes round-trip air fare from New York, local transportation, double occupancy accommodations, most meals and guides. Information: (800) 882-0025 or (202) 466-8382.
