

Charleston, South Carolina:
August 1-7, 2021

with Anton Armstrong

Songs for Our Time

Music for Social Justice, with Anton Armstrong

August 1-7, 2021: Charleston, South Carolina

Travel down south to the elegant coastal city of Charleston, South Carolina, and challenge the status quo with a bold and exciting program, conducted by the legendary Anton Armstrong of the St. Olaf Choir. Featuring passionate, cutting-edge works on themes of equity, justice, and strength, this program will challenge, uplift, and move you.

Charleston has a storied and patchwork history. Countless portrayals in media tell a wide range of stories, but to see in person is to experience it fully. Charleston's cobblestone streets, wide ocean vistas, and famously colorful row homes will charm and entrance you. Walk along the broad, genteel avenues, explore the warm, fertile Low Country surroundings, and catch a glimpse at the other side that the history books may not always tell you about. Classical Movements will work to support Black-owned businesses and highlight the stories not told often enough in this affecting and enlightening itinerary.

CHORAL ESCAPES!

by Classical Movements

PRICING, INCLUSIONS, and SAFETY

For more information and registration, visit:

$2,305.00 per person

<https://classicalmovements.wufoo.com/forms/choral-escapes-by-classical-movements-registration/>

INCLUSIONS

- 6 nights in 3-star hotels (twin accommodation, for family groups only) including breakfast
- Welcome and farewell dinners
- Three other meals, lunches or dinners
- Expert Classical Movements Tour Manager and engaging local guides
- Modern motor coach for sightseeing (does not include airport transfers)
- Sightseeing tours and entrances to top sites and cultural activities. Substitutions as per the final itinerary. Sightseeing activities subject to availability based on local restrictions.
 - ◊ Tour of Charleston - Old Slave Mart Museum, Fort Sumter, Rainbow Row
 - ◊ McLeod Plantation and Gullah Geechee cultural presentation
 - ◊ Moving Star Hall, former community center and worship house for enslaved Africans
 - ◊ Activities and tours to get an intimate insight on the local Gullah Geechee culture
 - ◊ Attendance of a musical performance by a local ensemble (jazz, choral, or orchestral), pending availability
- Daily rehearsals with breaks for room aeration
- Final presentation or performance, open to small select audience, pending local regulations
- Singing masks
- Sheet music
- Tour book and expert guidance on trip details including accommodations, transportation, activities, daily tour itinerary, travel guides, performance and cultural event details, trip journal, and other helpful travel tools, maps and more.

Prices are for a minimum of 40, singers and non-singers included. Single accommodation available for supplemental cost. Prices are set but are subject to change based on local health regulations at each destination due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Price does not include airfare or airport transfers.

SAFETY

Classical Movements takes your safety seriously, and we have designed every facet of our Choral Escapes program with your health and well-being in mind. Social distancing, singing masks, and aeration breaks will be implemented at all times during indoor and outdoor rehearsals or performances, and special care has been taken to engage venues and vendors that are respectful of COVID safety restrictions. Hotel rooms will be limited to individuals or household groups, and masks and distancing will be required for any group transportation, like motor coach rides.

For more information, view our Health and Safety guidelines, accessible via the registration form linked above. Other terms and conditions apply.

Performance has been de-emphasized for these programs, to allow for flexibility and less pressure in rehearsals, and to further facilitate the mission of the Choral Escapes program, which is...

For the Love of Singing!