Broadway Goes to the Caribbean

Classics of the Great American Songbook, with Jeanne Kelly

October 24-30, 2021: San Juan, Puerto Rico

Make your Caribbean escape to the breathtaking city of San Juan, Puerto Rico. Swing into a jazzy great time with a program of the greatest hits of Broadway and the Great American Songbook like George Gershwin and Cole Porter, led by the inimitable Jeanne Kelly, Founder and Artistic Director of Encore Creativity. Let the easy island breezes relax and refresh you, and enjoy the chance to celebrate live music again.

Travel to Puerto Rico is as easy as ever, and strict health regulations in the territory have led to a quick resurgence in its tourism industry. San Juan, the capital, is a stunningly preserved colonial city, with historic cobblestone streets to meander along and beautifully authentic local music and food, all with a refreshing ocean breeze. Nearby is the world landmark El Yunque National Forest, with breathtaking natural beauty and unique flora and fauna. Get ready to relax and sing again, and our cultural expertise will guide you to a satisfying and, most importantly, FUN musical experience!

SAFETY

Classical Movements takes your safety seriously, and we have designed every facet of our Choral Escapes program with your health and well-being in mind. Social distancing, singing masks, and aeration breaks will be implemented at all times during indoor and outdoor rehearsals or performances, and special care has been taken to engage venues and vendors that are respectful of COVID safety restrictions. Hotel rooms will be limited to individuals or household groups, and masks and distancing will be required for any group transportation, like motor coach rides.

For more information, view our Health and Safety guidelines document, accessible via the registration form linked above. Other terms and conditions apply.

Performance has been de-emphasized for these programs, to allow for flexibility and less pressure in rehearsals, and to further facilitate the mission of the Choral Escapes program, which is...
