

Sounds of Hope & Harmony – Philadelphia Tour

February 18-19, 2022

Join Classical Movements and the Friends of Sounds of Hope & Harmony just up the road in Philadelphia! This special tour will give you an insider view on the world-class Philadelphia Orchestra. Meet and hobnob with the concertmaster, David Kim, after a concert by the orchestra of Gershwin's iconic American in Paris, led by the incredible French conductor Ludovic Morlot. A fabulous dinner and visit to one of Philadelphia's historic museums rounds out this weekend jaunt to this dynamic city. Don't miss your chance to see the finer side of life in the City of Brotherly Love!

The cost of your trip includes:

- One night in a double room at a luxurious 4-star hotel, including breakfast and portorage
- Ticket to attend to the Philadelphia Orchestra's performance "An American in Paris" conducted by Ludovic Morlot at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts
- Post-concert champagne toast with Concertmaster David Kim
- Dinner at a fine Philadelphia restaurant, including wine
- Classical Movements tour manager and local tour guide as needed
- Return bus from Alexandria/Washington to Philadelphia, and hotel, concert, and sightseeing
- Sightseeing tour of Philadelphia and entrance to a top museum
- Special musical surprise

TOUR PACKAGE

$595.00 per person, minimum of 20 passengers

SINGLE ROOM SUPPLEMENT

$110.00 per person

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

By Friday, December 3, 2021:
Registration fee of $195 per person
By Wednesday, January 5, 2022:
Balance due

Proof of vaccination will be required

To register for the tour, please click here:

classicalmovements.wufoo.com/forms/friends-of-sounds-of-hope-harmony-philadelphia/

CANCELLATION FEES

December 3, 2021 - January 4, 2022:
forfeit $195 registration fee

January 5, 2022 or later:
total cost of the tour is non-refundable

Questions? Contact Alessandra D'Ovidio at alessandra@classicalmovements.com.